Christmas Fire Safety Steps Outlined By Chief

Christmas trees, lighted candles, arrangements of evergreen sprigs -- traditional decorative touches which spread the holiday atmosphere all through the house -- can also spread the horror of fire unless everyone is very careful.

This is the warning from Fire Chief John R. Kayser as the busy Yuletide season nears. Quoting studies compiled by the National Fire Protection Association, the Chief pointed out that each year lives are lost in fires directly related to Christmas, and the value of property destroyed in holiday fires averages 4 1/2 million dollars.

Chief John Kayser offers these timely suggestions for keeping Christmas "merry" by keeping fire out:

1. Natural trees should be fresh-looking and firm needled when you select them. Saw off the butt an inch above the original cut, stand the tree in water, and keep it in water until you dispose of it -- soon after Christmas Day. Don't rely on do-it-yourself flameproofing treatments, as none is truly effective. Set up the tree away from heat and where it won't block doorways or stairs.

Artificial trees should be clearly marked as made of slow burning materials. Look for the Underwriters' Laboratories (UL) label on trees with built-in electrical systems. With metal trees, use only indirect lighting to avoid the possibility of electric shock.

2. Check lighting strings for frayed wires, loose connections, broken sockets. Replace only with UL-labeled sets. Bulbs made in the U.S. generally are safe; imported bulbs may have dangerous hot spots. Electric cord sets with built-in fuses are strongly recommended. Always turn off tree and other indoor holiday lighting when leaving the house or retiring for the night. For outdoor lighting, use only sets UL-listed for this purpose.

3. Noncombustible materials such as metal, glass and asbestos should be used for decorations as much as possible. Make sure cotton batting, flock and decorating paper are flameproofed. Natural evergreen decorations dry quickly, burn readily, so keep them well removed from candles, the fireplace and other heat. Don't use polystyrene foam for table or mantle decorations where there are lighted candles.

4. Dispose of gift wrappings promptly and safely -- NOT in the fireplace.

5. Be especially careful during the Christmas season to keep matches and cigarette lighters out of the reach of children, and try to keep the youngsters from playing beneath or near the Christmas tree.

Finally, Chief John Kayser emphasizes, it is especially important during this busy season that children never be left alone or without proper supervision -- even for a short time -- and that every family have a well-rehearsed escape plan for use in case of a fire emergency.

MPC Students

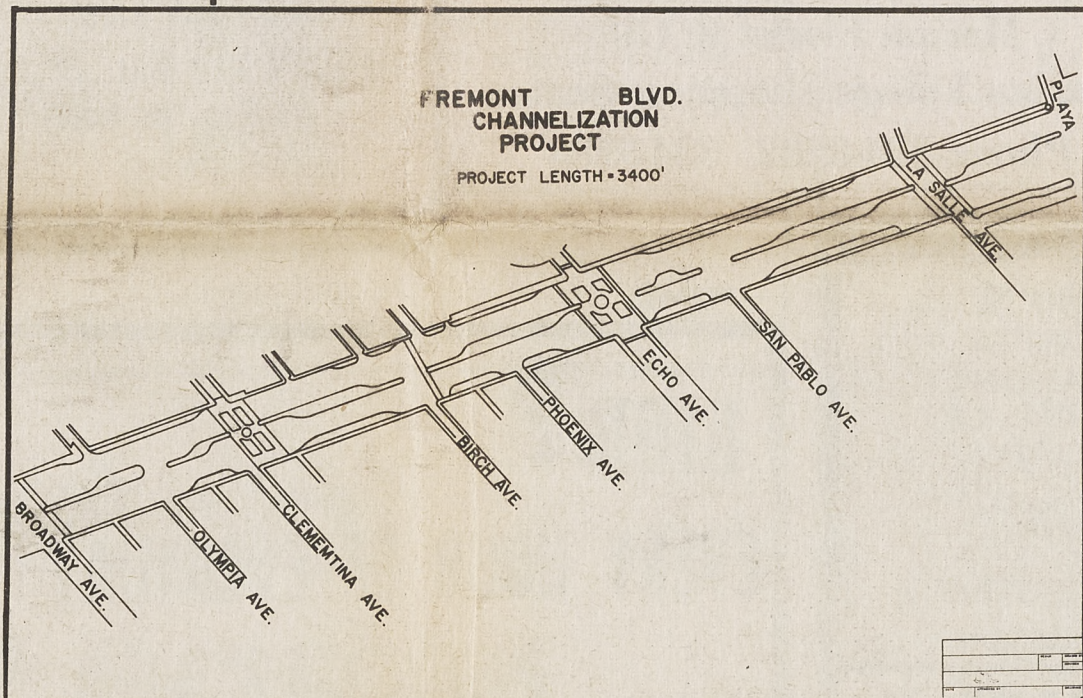

Help Collect

Food for Needy

Students from Monterey Peninsula College are cooperating with the Salvation Army in collecting food and toys for needy families on the peninsula this Christmas.

A list of needed food items has been posted in the College Center at MPC, according to Ilene Cashman, a member of the College Center Programs Board. "We would like to have more than student involvement," she said, "We hope for community support, too." Those wishing to obtain a list of needed food items may call the College Center at 375-9821, ext. 333.

Map of Construction Area

Footballers Are Honored

Toys are also needed, she pointed out, and gifts should be wrapped. "Each package should indicate the age and sex of the child for whom it is intended," she said. The ages are 1 to 15.

Gifts and good items will be accepted at the College Center until December 15. On that date, the Salvation Army will pick up the items and distribute them to the needy, according to Miss Cashman.

The Seaside Parks and Recreation Department held its first annual football awards banquet Friday night, December 8 at the Seaside Youth Center.

Honored at the banquet were those boys who participated in the Elementary School football league at their respective schools. The schools and their coaches are as follows: Del Rey Woods coached by Mike Garnew; Covell coached by T.O.

Lathan; Highland coached by Ralph Rolling; Manzanita coached by Bill Garrard; Ord Terrace coached by Al Lewis; and Juan Cabrillo coached by Ken Morris.

The boys involved had regular practice sessions and an eight-game league schedule. The season was culminated by an All-Star game pitting the Seaside playgrounds against the Monterey playgrounds. This game was won by Seaside 18-13.

A total of 150 boys were involved in this program on a varsity and junior varsity basis.

The next sporting event will be an elementary school basketball tournament at Seaside High School the week following Christmas.

Comission Members Are Nominated

The names of three prominent citizens of the Monterey Peninsula have been suggested by the Monterey Peninsula Chamber of Commerce for appointment to the Central Coast Regional Commission. They are Charles B. Kramer, Pebble Beach; Charles H. Page, Attorney, Monterey and Mrs. C. Mark Thomas, Carmel Valley.

This sixteen person Commission will administer the Coastal Initiative for San Mateo, Santa Cruz and Monterey Counties.

The Chamber Directors on the Committee making the selection were Clyde Hall, Chairman, Vernon Hurd and Jack Dougherty. The Chamber's Executive Committee ratified the suggestions.

15 Students Named In Scholarship Program

Fifteen Seaside and Monterey high school students have been selected as semi-finalists or singled out for commendation by the 1973 National Merit Scholarship Program, principals of the two schools have announced.

John Grant and Joel Caldwell were named as semi-finalists from Seaside High School, Jane Tonkin, Joseph Henry Wythe and Jeffrey A. Camp are semi-finalists from Monterey High School. All are senior students and will be eligible to compete for Merit Scholarships to be awarded in the spring.

Students who received commendation in the scholarship program's qualifying test include Miriam Baymon, Ann Hawkins, Edward Muniz and Barbara Williamson from Seaside High and Robin Poskus and Randolph Sena of Monterey High. Although he took the qualifying test at Seaside High, Muniz now attends Monterey High.

The scholarship program also selects Outstanding Negro

Students who compete for scholarships. Miss Baymon, from Seaside High, was selected a semi-finalist in the Outstanding Negro Students program. Vennis T. Manson received a similar honor at Monterey High School, along with Bette Saragossa and Valverta Love, who were named as commended students under the Outstanding Negro Students program.

Approximately 15,000 semi-finalists from throughout the nation will be competing for 3,000 Merit Scholarships in 1973, based on academic talents. The scholarships are provided by corporations, foundations, colleges, unions, trusts, professional associations, other organizations and individuals.

Federal Summer Job Deadline Near, Says Smith

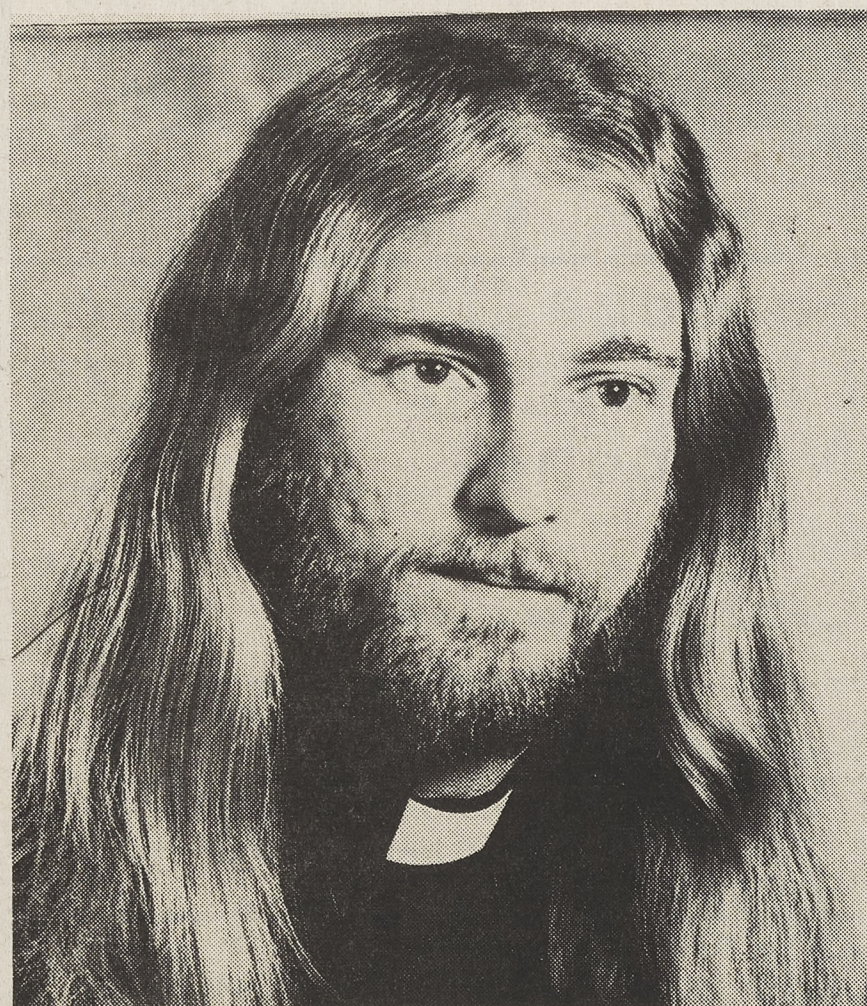

Loren E. Smith, president of the Student Employment Service program, announced that a supply of federal agency announcements and application forms are now available for high school and college students, age 18 or over. The application forms may be obtained by reporting in person to the Student Employment Service, 480 Webster Street, Monterey, Monday through Friday, between 3 and 4:30 p.m.

There will be a limited number of job openings on the Peninsula. Included in these jobs are seasonal assistants with the Post Office Department and jobs common to most federal agencies, such as typists, stenographers, account clerks, engineering and science aides.

Applications must be on file before December 29 to qualify for the examination to be given on February 10, 1973. A second test will be given in March for which applications must be on file before January 26, 1973.

Mr. Smith stated "It would be well for any student interested in this 1973 summer job program wishing to take the examination on February 10 to file his application by December 20."

Publisher's Report Seaside Ripples

A. E. 'Andy' Barragan, Publisher

By Clint Porter
(In the absence of Andy Barragan)

A.E. Barragan

I received a telephone call the other day from a lady who seemed to be rather upset. She asked me why I never wrote "editorials" like the other papers. I asked her to explain, which she did. The other papers have editorials whereby the Editor or Guest Editor (whoever that is) takes a stand for or against certain happenings in the community.

I informed her that I was not the editor nor the guest editor, therefore I did not have the authority to act in that capacity. Then she asked me (she was kinda talkative) why I have never said anything about another newspaper in Seaside. To that I informed her that I had only seen two separate issues of that newspaper. The first copy I picked up at the Camacho Headquarters before the election, the second copy I picked up at the Seaside Chamber of Commerce. I live in Seaside but was not one of the lucky recipients.

She tried to continue the conversation, but I was unable to do so at that time because the other telephones were ringing. But I told her that if she wanted to give someone a wonderful gift for Christmas, she should give them a subscription of both newspapers, then they will be able to read both sides of the coin, plus an extended amount of information of what is happening in the Bay Area. She said she was an elderly lady and could never make the trip up there anyway, so what was the use. We parted "ears" and I took care

OEO Announces Grant to States' Filipino-Americans

Senator John V. Tunney has announced that the Office of Economic Opportunity has made a $60,000 grant to the California State Filipino American Coordinating Conference.

The purpose of the twelve-month grant, of which Mr. H.H. Jacaban will be the project director, is to provide for the establishment of a housing development which will help to meet the serious housing needs of Filipino-Americans in Kern, Monterey, and Santa Clara counties.

Senator Tunney, at the request of Mr. Jacaban, had expressed to OEO his support for such a low cost housing program.

The following are excerpts from Senator Tunney's letter of June 2, 1972, to Phil Sanchez, OEO Director:

"Several members of the California State Filipino-American Coordinating Conference met in my Washington, D.C. office to discuss what they consider to be neglect or indifference to the needs of California's approximately 200,000 Filipino-Americans.

"I share their concern in the fact that Filipino-Americans have somehow been lost in the shuffle with the result that there has been too little, if any, attention to their problem by the Federal Government.

"I was also informed by Mr. M.H. Jacaban that the Filipino-American Coordinating Conference has submitted to your office a proposal to expand the development of its current low-cost housing program for Filipino-Americans.

ARMY RECRUITER

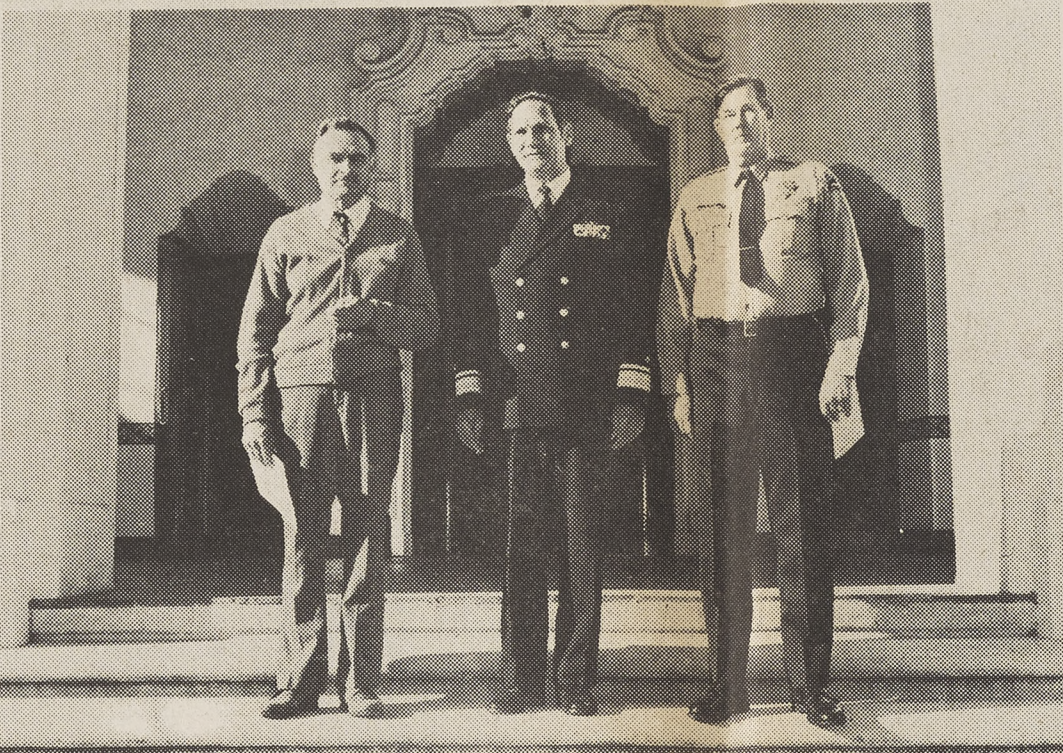

Business needs administrative assistants too. A large metropolitan newspaper recently concluded a series on the condition of local business in its community. In its effort to pinpoint the many and varied reasons for so many businesses leaving the city, the series disturbed quite a few people. But interestingly, there was one executive who found a silver lining in the dark, ominous industrial cloud settling over the city. This particular executive owned and directed the activities of a large insurance company. When asked what he thought of the gloomy forecast for urban business, he replied: "I don't think it's as bad as people make out. Sure there are businesses leaving. I'm glad there are, maybe now I can get some qualified, experienced administrative assistance. That statement, perhaps better than any, expresses the significance top level executives attach to capable administrative assistants. A person with refined clerical skills and a clear, attentive mind observant of detail is a very valuable asset to any organization.

Such people are always in demand. Wherever there are people making decisions, there are people behind them keeping track of details and other loose ends. Many of these people enjoy a widely respected professional status, with high wages, attractive working conditions and excellent benefits.

TODAY'S ARMY has a need for clerk-typist. But a person who enters the Army to be clerk-typist is, in many ways, much more. Often such people find themselves organizing orders and special reports based on written or verbal instructions. TODAY'S ARMY offers valuable experience to people in this job specialty. Clerk-typists receive proof reading important correspondence and operating typical office machinery like mimeograph, posting and adding machines.

In addition, they often find themselves exposed to all sorts of travel possibilities. The need for clerk-typists is not limited to the geographic borders of the continental United States, but includes many overseas locations.

SAND TARTS

The following recipe is a cookie classic. This makes about 80 cookies and look at 'em go!

- 1-1/4 cups sugar;
- 3/4 cup butter;
- 1 egg;
- 1 egg yolk;
- 1 teaspoon vanilla;
- 1 teaspoon grated lemon rind;
- 3 cups bread flour;
- 1/4 teaspoon salt

Sift the sugar and beat the butter until soft. Then gradually add the sugar to the butter and blend until they are very soft and creamy. Beat the egg, egg yolk, vanilla and lemon rind. Sift the flour before measuring and resift with salt. Stir the flour into the butter gradually until well-blended. Chill the dough for several hours. Roll it until it is very thin. Cut into rounds using a cookie cutter or fruit-juice glass. Brush the tops of the cookies with white of egg and sprinkle them generously with sugar. Bake on greased sheets for about eight minutes at 400 F.

Exhibit Planned

A special one-day presentation of original lithograph, intaglio, serigraph and woodcut prints will be held Thursday, December 14, from 10 am to 4 pm in Room A-5, Fine Art Department Wing, Hartnell College.

The public is invited to view this unique collection of the Lakeside Studio from Lakeside, Michigan and to meet their representative, Doug DeLind, who will be happy to answer questions both historical and technical. All works to be displayed are available for purchase.

The work to be exhibited here, valued at over $100,000, contains prints by old master and modern master artists such as Albrecht Durer, Jacques Callot, Georges Rouault and Pablo Picasso. Also there will be prints by contemporary artists Leonard Baskin, Caro Andresian, Mark Tobey, Sid Chafetz, S.W. Hayter and many others including Dennis Beall, Richard Graf, John Ihle and Misch Kohn from California.

The purpose of Lakeside Studio is two-fold. First, to make available high quality, original prints to established and beginning collectors and, second, to fulfill a need for rapport with the working printmaker. Located on five wooded acres overlooking Lake Michigan, yet within an hour's drive of Chicago, the studio offers a fully-equipped lithograph and intaglio workshop. These facilities have been set up and operated by master printers trained at Tamarind Lithography Workshop in Los Angeles.

Prints by Rudy Pozzatti, Sigmund Abeles and Misch Kohn, to name only a few artists, have been printed and published by Lakeside; a total of nearly fifty editions have been completed so far. The studio also offers a summer course for professional printmakers. This course is directed each year by various noted artists and professional printers. Included on the property is a 50-room hotel which was once a popular

Wood Named To Committee

Assemblyman Bob Wood said in Sacramento recently that he appreciated being selected as one of 5 Legislators to serve on a special committee to protect the coastline.

Assembly Speaker Bob Moretti announced that he had named Wood as one of the members of a special Select Committee on Coastal Zone Resources. The Assembly committee will work with the state-wide and regional coastline commissions soon to be set up to guard against environmentally damaging developments.

Wood and the other four Assemblymen on the Committee were all supporters of Proposition 20 and were active in efforts to get a coastal preservation bill passed by the Legislature.

The Monterey County Assemblyman said that "the new committee would work very closely with the coastline master plan recommended by the commissions and this committee will be able to participate in the development of a state-wide coastal plan."

New Art Exhibit At City Hall

The December art exhibit at the Seaside City Hall features a one-woman show by Martha Eppler with gems and jewelry by Janet and Edward Jones of Hobbit Mines and Christmas crafts by Mrs. Bonnie Boggs of H & H Supply Inc. The hours are 9 to 5 Monday through Friday.

She has exhibited at the Monterey County Fair, in Santa Cruz, Salinas and Carmel. A Salinas resident, Mrs. Eppler, is a member of the Salinas Fine Art Group and Art Unlimited.

Moving South

Lyman P. Grover, Scout executive of the Peninsula Boy Scout District since February 1969, leaves this area January 1 to take over the Huntington Beach Area District in Orange County. In his new assignment he will be serving over 5,000 Scouts, twice the number in the district he presently serves.

During his four years in this area he has given leadership to volunteers resulting in a 10 percent gain in Scout membership and developed many new Scout programs in the Peninsula area.

Janet and Edward Jones are showing their "Canyon Originals" gold wire jewelry. Besides a collection of gem stones, they are displaying Big Sur Indian jade tools, gold from the Los Burros Mining District and silver ingots from their mine at Big Sur.

Mrs. Bonnie Boggs teaches crafts at H & H Supply Inc. Mrs. Boggs teaches all crafts, but the examples on display are Christmas decorations and gifts.

of other business.

Did you ever read "Games People Play" by Eric Berne? Dr. Berne is not talking about "games" like tag, football, basketball, hide-and-seek, or any of those youthful games. He is talking about adult games. Games people play with themselves; games people play on other people; games of the adult nature.

An editorial in Newsweek said, about the book, "A fascinating book....These are not necessarily 'fun' games. In fact, most of them are hair-raisingly neurotic rituals in which tensions are discharged and satisfactions gained, usually at the expense of others."

An editorial written by Paul Carroll of the Chicago Daily News said, about a game in the book, "Uproar" involves a frigid wife who delights to parade in negligee near her husband so that she can waspishly repulse him when he becomes amorous.....One of the everyday 'games' described with insight, wit and gentle malice."

I could go on and on describing the substance of the book but I would like for my readers to take time out from their daily pastimes and do themselves a favor. The reason I mentioned that particular book was because whole organizations or companies can play the 'game' in an whole-hearted effort to win. They care less about who is hurt while their game is being played, nor are they particularly eager to win. They just want to upset the applecart and then go some place else and do the same. It's like kids who put sand or sugar in gasoline tanks. They do not want the automobile, nor do they want anyone else to drive it. The kids who do that have nothing to gain, but the person they do it to can lose an entire automobile.

Those of you who have been around people a long time can remember many instances where things were going along smoothly and some "cluck" starts a fight.

This brings to mind one of the chapters I read in "Games People Play." There was this Bulgarian peasant who had been suffering for years with arthritis. She finally sells her only cow to raise money to go to a clinic. Her case was so interesting that the professor of the clinic presented her in a clinical demonstration to the medical students. She was overjoyed at the attention she received. Before she left, the professor gave her a prescription and explains the treatment in more detail. However, she never had the prescription filled. First, there is no pharmacy in her town; second, even if there were, she would never let such a valuable piece of paper out of her hands. She lives on, crippled as before, but happy now because she can tell everyone about the wonderful treatment prescribed for her by the great professor. Years later, the professor happens to pass through the village on his way to see, a wealthy, but demanding, patient. He remembered the peasant when she rushes out to kiss his hand and remind him of the attention given her long ago. He accepts her homage graciously, and is particularly gratified when she tells him how much good the treatment has done. In fact he is so carried away that he fails to notice that she limps as badly as ever.

This was a case of supreme satisfaction. The peasant was satisfied, even though no treatment was ever given to her arthritic condition. The professor was satisfied thinking he had truly helped the lady.

Are you attending Church regularly? Did you apologize for the mistake in judgement you recently made towards your loved one? Did you smile today?

My boss Andy is wishing Merry Christmas to everyone. There will be another issue before then, but he wants to put his "goods" in early. He also says "Shake a hand - make a friend."

As we close this column until next week, let's all say a few words to the Man who hears all cries. Mrs. Barragan had to grab a bird back East because her dad is in the hospital suffering with a kidney ailment. You know the routine. You did it for Andy, now let's do it for his father-in-law. Thank you and God Bless You.

Army Specialist Four Angel L. Sepulveda, son of Mr. and Mrs. Luis A. Sepulveda of Seaside, recently completed a 36-week satellite communications terminal repair course at the Army Signal Center and School, Ft. Monmouth, New Jersey. During the course, he learned how to repair equipment used in tracing satellites and in receiving and transmitting radio and television signals worldwide through satellites.

Spec. Sepulveda entered the Army in October 1971 and received basic training at Ft. Ord.

Army Private Michael R. Montgomery, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvie H. Montgomery of Marina, recently completed eight weeks of basic training at the U.S. Army Training Center, Infantry, Ft. Polk, Louisiana. He received instruction in drill and ceremonies, weapons, map reading, combat tactics, military courtesy, military justice, first aid, and army history and traditions.

Pvt. Montgomery received his training with Company D, 3rd Battalion of the 2nd Brigade. He attended Seaside High School.

Your Supervisor Reports

Loren E. Smith

These past six years it has been my privilege to serve the people of the Fourth District as their Supervisor.

The task of taking care of the affairs of the County and being able to participate in serious decisions that affect the lives of so many people gives one a feeling of being able to accomplish many worthwhile goals for the Community. It is my sincere hope that as time goes by future years may demonstrate that my six years were productive years.

When I leave my present office shortly after the first of the new year it is my present intention to become actively engaged in the Real Estate business on the Monterey Peninsula as I had originally planned when I retired from my banking career.....hopefully I will be seeing many of you again in this capacity.

Now I would like to wish each and every one of you a Christmas full of happiness and may the New Year bring the best of everything for you and your loved ones.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

The Seaside Community Choir is to be congratulated for the many fine performances before numerous audiences throughout the Monterey Peninsula!

Our young people sing beautifully and they deserve far more recognition than they have received. Mr. Marvin B. McKnight, the Choir organizer and director, who not only directs but also plays the piano/organ, deserves special accolades for his community service! Seaside is proud of our Community Choir!

It has been said that there is always a place in the world for a person who performs a useful service. There is also a place in the community for one who performs a community service. When we realize this and adopt community service as a way of life, we can begin to reap the blessings and self-satisfaction which come with contentment and the knowledge that WHAT WE HAVE DONE and WHAT WE ARE DOING is to make our own lives richer and more meaningful by helping others.

BEATITUDES OF A LEADER

BLESSED is the leader who has not sought the high places, but who has been drafted into service because of his ability and willingness to serve.

BLESSED is the leader who knows where he is going, why he is going, and how to get there.

BLESSED is the leader who knows no discouragement, who presents no alibi.

BLESSED is the leader who knows how to lead without being dictatorial; true leaders are humble.

BLESSED is the leader who seeks for the best for the good of the most concerned; and not for the personal gratification of his own ideas.

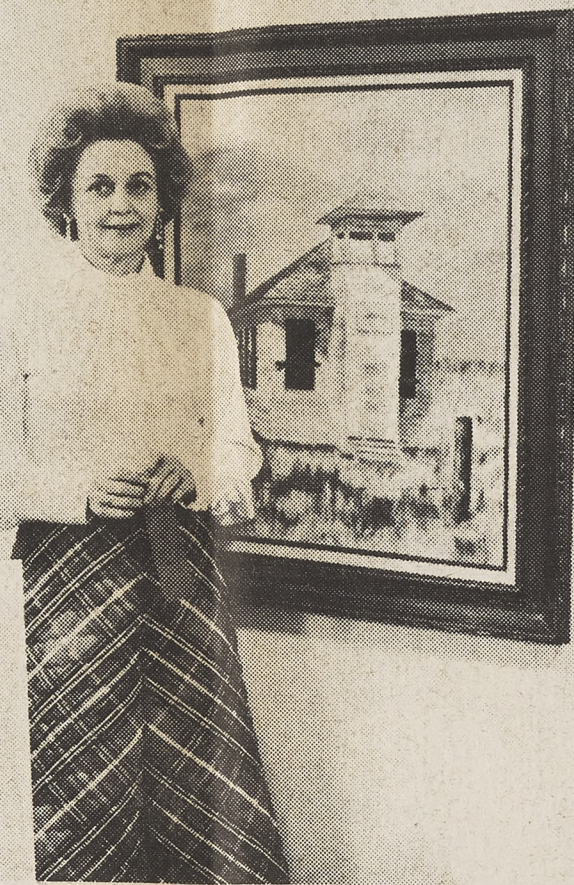

BLESSED is the leader who develops leaders while leading. BLESSED is the leader who marches with the group, interprets correctly the signs on the pathway that leads to success.

BLESSED is the leader who has his head in the clouds but his feet on the ground.

BLESSED is the leader who considers leadership an opportunity for service.

Scottish Xmas Planned at Highlands Inn

Again the Highlands Inn is ushering in the holiday season. Over the years, owners, Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Ramsey, have entertained thousands with their unique Scottish Christmas Tree Celebration on Friday, December 15 at 8 p.m., which includes the tree decoration party, the Highland Pipers, and tiny carolers from the Church of the Wayfarer directed by Mrs. Ann Welchener. Scottish Country Dancing by the Scottish Country Dance Group of the Monterey Peninsula follows the annual Wisting Ceremony and party.

The second of the openhouse events to which local residents are invited is the laying of the annual Yule Log on Sunday, December 24 at 9 p.m. The legend of the Yule Log is heard and the annual Yule Log is escorted into the Inn by the Inn's crew where the Scottish ceremony takes place as the Log is laid into the huge fireplace at the Inn.

The third open house event 'Round the Wassail Bowl is held on Sunday, December 31st at 6 p.m., where neighboring Highlanders and local residents gather together to share a cup of cheer in most happy surroundings. It is sort of a prelude to Father Time and Baby New Year kicking up the dust at midnight.

Days Left

About the only jingle bells you hear at Christmas time in urban America today are the unmelodious sounds of cash registers. The Christmas tree surrounded by gobs of presents is a strange symbol to honor Him who had few earthly possessions.

Christmas today is the greatest consumer event of the year. Billions upon billions of dollars are spent annually for the trimmings of Christmas: trees, decorations, gifts and food. The spirit of Christmas has been overthrown by Madison Avenue. The singing angels have been replaced by the advertising men who chant "buy, buy." It is a time of materialism and the overindulgence of the "eat, drink and be merry" syndrome. Peace on Earth is honored by a one day cease fire so soldiers can contemplate peace and brotherhood. Good Will toward men is a Christmas card cliché which means little in a land where injustice and hard-heartedness is ever on the incline.

All of this has created a pagan holiday of gigantic proportions, while the baby Jesus is relegated to a plastic figure in a church manger. Gold, myrr and frankincense are offered not to the true world savior but to the saviors of Wall Street.

If American wishes to worship mammon with revelry, at least let it not be associated with the holiday of the birth of Him who stands diametrically opposed to materialism. The other day I went to buy stamps at the postoffice. There were two kinds of stamps for Christmas; one was with angels, one had a picture of Santa Claus with his bag of goodies. The post office clerk thought I was weird because I didn't think the Santa Claus stamp exemplified the true spirit of Christmas. She liked that one the best.

I thought I could peacefully co-exist with capitalism, but when the high priests of greed turn a spiritual holiday into a pagan holiday and trample on what is holy, I must openly protest and condemn their actions. The greed must stop. The hypocrisy of so-called Christians who have sold out to this system must stop. As for myself, this will be the last year I will celebrate Christmas on December 25. I would encourage all other who feel as I do, also to choose another date, which most likely should be Epiphany, two weeks after Christmas.

December 25 was originally borrowed by Christians as the birthday of Jesus, not because it was the correct date, but December 25 was originally a pagan holiday which Christians took over in order to obliterate the pagan holiday in the minds of the local people, as they have commonly done with many other days which are now associated with Christian holidays. So perhaps it is fitting that we give December 25 back to the pagans. For as this Christmas, why not try to avoid the materialistic hustle and bustle by making your own gifts, giving to the poor, giving to an organization which is doing the work of love and peace and, above all, give yourself. If you are simply trapped this Christmas at least try to spend a little more of your holiday time remembering what the true meaning of Christmas is all about. Christmas is the celebration of the discovery that Christ
